SCHEDULING ORDER

On April 12, 2010, Vermont Marble Power Division of OMYA, Inc. ("Vermont Marble") filed, via e-mail message, a letter requesting an extension of the filing deadline for its responses to the Vermont Department of Public Service's ("Department") information requests from April 12, 2010, to April 16, 2010. Vermont Marble stated that the Department did not object to this extension, provided the deadline for the Department to prefile its testimony is extended until May 7, 2010, instead of the current May 3, 2010, deadline. Vermont Marble did not indicate in its letter whether it had contacted Vermont Quarries Corporation ("Vermont Quarries"), the other party in the case, with regard to the proposed changes to the schedule.

I hereby grant the proposed schedule changes. The new deadline for Vermont Marble to respond to the Department's Round I discovery requests is April 16, 2010. Even though Vermont Marble's letter did not request an extension to the deadline for Vermont Marble to file its prefiled testimony, because the current deadline is the same day as the Department's deadline, I am granting an extension for both. The new deadline for the Department and Vermont Quarries to prefile testimony is May 7, 2010.

Given that it was not contacted about the proposed schedule changes, Vermont Quarries may if it wishes file an objection to the schedule changes and request a reconsideration of this order. I remind parties that they should contact all parties when proposing changes in the schedule for this proceeding.

SO ORDERED.

Dated at Montpelier, Vermont, this 16th day of April, 2010.
